Removal of Secretary Stanton

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.
The President to-day sent an executive message to the Senate stating that on the 12th of August ast, under authority vested in him by the Constitution of the United States, he suspended Edwin M. To Hon. Schuyler Cotfax, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb 21, 1808. Size—By virtue of the power and authority rested in me as President by the Constitution of the United States, you are hereby removed from office as Secretary of War and your functions as such will terminate as such upon receipt of this communication. You will therefore transfer to Brevet Major General L. Bemecratic National Convention
The members of the National Denucratic Committee met informally this morning at the rooms of the Realdent Committee. It seems understood that the committee appointed by the Chicago National Convention will hold a private meeting, at which many preliminary maters will be considured. Among the most important are whether the regular sessions of the committee shall be open to the public and as to the powers of trees, any probable most proposaled members from Southern States. A preliminary meeting will be called by August Belmont, or New York, and will probably be held to night.

Minister to China.

The nomination of J. Rose Brown as Minister to China is strongly endorsed by the press of California. It is expected since the particulars of Mr. Burlingume's mission have been received that action upon Mr. Brown's noministion will soon be taken by the Senate. There is apparently no opposition to his confirmation.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has in-formation from Amass that an Assistant Asses-sor, a rectifier and inspector of spirite and a dis-tilier, had been detected in committing fraud-upon the Government and had been arrested and put under bonds and the distillery and other property selzed and confiscated.

This is honest and consistent. We hope every Republi our will vote in fixor of it, and every Demi crat against it We trust the amendment will be adopted and that the Republican party will frankly and bravely accept the full responsibility for it Timidity is the forerunner of defeat Equivocation only weakens and demoralizes The odium and prejudice excited by advocating such a measure here, can be no greater than that which we encounter for haposing it up a the South The question is one for the whole United

But it is high time that the people of Pennsyl ranks revised her Constitution as a whole, test ing every part by the light of the experience of thirty years not only humanizing her policy wherein unjust discrimination has hitherto pro vailed, but instituting more powerful checke against the reposity of corporations and the corruption of Legislatures. In the arts and selen ces it moral chilatenment, the ages are steadily advancing to a more perfect civilization. Why should not the present generation have better bless of the true prin knowledge in other departments—in our physical world, than those who preceded us on the stage of affairs? The ballot for a colored man is no more to be wondered at than the discovery of oll Both are signs and incidents of human pro grees The colored population count about on, filtieth of the population of this State, an insindeant fragm ent numerically but capable turning the scales in a close or doubtful election between the two great political parties of the day. But we urge their enjoyment of the elective franchise upon no narrow partisan ground, bu upon principles of common justice, for the nakof a decent conformity with the code of legisla tion which Pennsylvania, through her represent tative in Congress, is now aiding to fasten upon the less reballions States and in the spirit of their acceptance and endorsement of the more liberal, just and humant views of the political rights which should be guarranteed to every Political Corrunitan.

How to put a stop to legislative cornection is one of the most important questions of the day How to break up rings, and stears person d and official integrity Some say let every citizen who has anything at stake, attend the primary meetings and see that the best men are selected for candidates. Let them bolt their own parts when it presents an unworths person for the auffrages. This kind of reform has been preached for years, cvery one assents to it, but few print tico is Others my increase the number of your toristatisk bady make your House to consult of and won diminish the chances of bribery and cor ruption, rings and combinations Assuredly something must be done. It has come that few bills are passed on theh intrinsic merits but men expect an equivalent in dollars and cents for their rotes on the planest matters of justice and public expediency.

Pay them well, and they will stickle at nothing in the ministering to the repactly of corporations or the ambition of political aspuants. It shows a demoralized state of jublic opinion when a Legislature can tamper with and pervere on the and escape unscathed The Press must sernin ize the votes of our Representatives, and hold them to a strict account of their stawardship The people must not be kept in the durk, but fally enlightened as to the motives and consider ations which have led their public servants to oppose measures of State weal and public utility and to give their countenance to mercunary schemes and appropriations and immunities i f yor of any class, section or to position what oever If the evils of partial legislation cannot be presented by such public Unill mer sound public morality, the power of special en actments must be taken away by the reservation of thew Constitution
